NEIGHBORHOOD SNAPSHOT

WHAT JACK LONDON SQUARE IS

Oakland's only publicly accessible mixed-use waterfront and marina district.

A historic estuary-front neighborhood with residences, offices, restaurants, entertainment, and public waterfront space.

Known for its walkable promenade, marina views, and direct connection to Oakland's waterfront.

WHY THIS AREA STANDS OUT

Why buyers, locals, and watchers pay attention.

RARE WATERFRONT LIFESTYLE

One of the few East Bay districts that combines marina views, public waterfront space, and an urban setting.

TRANSIT-RICH LOCATION

Train, ferry, BART access, and downtown proximity give the area unusual flexibility.

LIVE-WORK-PLAY FEEL

Housing, dining, offices, and entertainment all sit within the same district.

ROOM FOR UPSIDE

The area still feels earlier in its evolution than many established waterfront districts.

Professionals who value transit

People who want Oakland character + water access

Long-view investors and local market watchers

WHAT DRIVES ATTENTION HERE

WHAT'S CHANGING

THE FUTURE STORY BEHIND JACK LONDON SQUARE

SB 304

Passed in 2025

In effect in 2026

SB 304 lifted restrictive maritime and visitor-serving rules on certain Port-owned Jack London Square properties, giving the Port more flexibility to lease space to a wider mix of community-serving businesses.

WHAT'S NEXT

The goal is a broader mix of businesses that builds community and a stronger sense of place.

THE FUTURE OF JACK LONDON SQUARE

FINAL TAKE

Jack London Square already has the setting: waterfront views, transit access, neighborhood identity, and a built-in destination feel. The next chapter is about making the area feel more complete, active, and neighborhood-oriented day to day.

WHY THAT MATTERS

More everyday convenience

More consistent foot traffic

A stronger sense of place

BOTTOM LINE

This is one of the East Bay's most interesting waterfront districts to watch because the opportunity is not just physical — it's functional.

WHAT TO WATCH

New neighborhood-serving retail

Hospitality repositioning

Steady activation of the waterfront

How the district evolves from destination to true neighborhood
